MAGAZINE FEATURES

THE NEWS SCIMITAR

DAILY COMIC PAGE

UNCLE WIGGILY

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE PUDDING STICK.

or cake?"

by, aimost always, when the musk-lady cr
lindy housekeeper made ratilely g noises among the pots, pans and hes in the kitchen it meant she was ting or boiling or frying or stewing symmething.

of honey cakes with maple sugar gravy sprinkled over the top, and then, taking his red vest and his tall, silk, red, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch, he hopped over the fields and through the woods, looking for Nurse simost always, when the muskdy housekeeper made ratile?

"Oh, I note Wiggly' Come here!

Quick! The pudding stick is jumping or boiling or frying or stewing nething.

By 11 take a look, said tine;
y to himself, as he hopped down
for he had just gotten up out and had not as jet, eaten has set.

I day cried!

"Oh, I note Wiggly' Come here!

Quick! The pudding stick is jumping around all over the kitchen floor!

Out ran the bunny rabbit gentleman.

Surely enough, the had picked up was twisting and inraing on the Scor of the kitchen, and Nurse Jane, with the paws held over her ears, was standing in a corner.

wiggily to himself, as he hopped down stairs, for he had just gotten up out of bed and had not, as yet, eaten has breakfage.

"What are you making, Nurse Jane" he saked the musical lady, as he opened the kitchen door.

"I am making a rice pudding, Wiggily," answered Nurse Jane "And I wish you'd go and get me—""
I know what you want!" cried the rabbit gentieman, with a low and polite he of his pink, twinkling nose. "You want me to go to the signt and seven tent store and get you some raisins for the rice pudding!" He was just about to reach down his tall silk hat from the rice pudding!" He was just about to reach down his tall silk hat from the rice pudding!" He was just about to reach down his tall silk hat from the rice pudding? "He was just about to reach down his tall silk hat from the rice pudding?" He was just about to reach down his tall silk hat from the rice pudding? "He was just about to reach down his tall silk hat from the rice pudding?" He was just about to reach down his tall silk hat from the rice pudding? "Ho was just about to reach down his tall silk hat from the rice pudding? "Ho was just about to reach down his tall silk hat from the raisins I need for this rice pudding. "Not so fast, Uncle Wiggily. I have all the raisins I need for this rice pudding. "Not so fast, Uncle Wiggily. I have all the raisins I need for this rice pudding. "What a pudding stick."

"Acu know when you make a rice pudding with, answered Nurse Jane.

"You know when you make a rice pudding with, answered Nurse Jane."

"Teal lour, thin, smooth stick to stir a pudding with, answered Nurse Jane."

"Then you shall have it!" said Uncle wiggily.

"Uncle wiggily.

"The pudding stick."

"The you did," said the twisting and through the woods looking for Nurse Jane put me in the chair by the warm stove. I became sort of unfrozen, and just had to wiggle the pudding stick. Of unfrozen, and just had to wiggle are pudding. Spoke the bumpo

I'm a poor fool who can't make and hold deep friendships. Men grab at not like a fish goes after a hook and when they talk to me a little while they let go and beat it. What am I going to do? Some day I want to marry and I den't want to marry a fool. DORTHY R.

MY DEAR Dorothy.

IN THE first place IF YOU hadn't any sense.

YOU WOULDN'T know THAT YOU hadn't may sense WHATEVER THAT means.

AND THEN again. IF YOU hadn't any sense

YOU WOULDN'T care. IF You hadn't any sense. AND YOU'D be satisfied.

TO JUST be pretty. AND BECAUSE you're not

WE MUST conclude: THAT YOU have good sense. AND STILL you say.

THAT YOU seem unable. TO HOLD on to a man. AND ONCE on a time.

I KNEW a girl AND I have an idea. SHE WAS just like you. AND SHE had good sense.

THE YOUNG LADY ACROSS THE WAY

AND WAS beautiful. BUT SHE tried so hard TO MAKE people believe

THAT IN spite of the fact. THAT SHE ranked as a beauty SHE STILL had sense. THAT SHE overdid R.

AND YOU couldn't tell. IF SHE had no sense. OR TOO much sense.

AND THERE are two sure things. THAT MEN don't want.

WHEN THEY RE seeking a wife. AND ONE is a girl WHO HAS no sense.

AND THE other is a girl WHO IS so darn bright. THAT THE poor fish husband.

WOULD GET to be known. AS JUST the husband. OF HIS wonderful wife

AND, LUSTEN, Dorothy YOU RUST forget. THAT YOU'RE very pretty.

AND HAVEN'T any sense AND THE first thing you know.

SOME REALLY fine man. WILL COME looking around. FOR A really fine girl. AND HELL pick you out AND IF you'll let him;

HELL PROBABLY tell you. THE REASON he wants you. IS BECAUSE you're sensible. AND A sensible girl IS THE sort of a girl. THAT I think you are

IF YOU ID just quit worrying ABOUT YOURSELF. SIMPLE RULES TO AVOID INFLUENZA Influenza has always existed and it is uite likely many cases will again occur his fall and winter. There is assur-ance, however, from various authorita-live sources that the disease will no the sources that the disease will not reach epidemic proportions.

In the effort to payent and limit any lare-up of this intectious disease, the following precuttions are advocated:

Avoid others who have colds

Avoid common drinking cups and common towels.

Avoid spitting on the sidewalks and public places.

Avoid averaging of the sidewalks and public places.

in jubile places.

Avoid spreading disease by coughing or enceating. Use your handkerchief.

Avoid the dangers which lurk in a closed and stuffy bedroom. Sleep-with the windows open.

Avoid fatigue. Adopt regular habits, choose your food, and get into the habit of daily exercise.

Avoid exposure to cold and wet. Don't fall to wear clothing according to the temperature of the day.

Avoid viriting patients suffering from respiratory diseases. The patient should occupy a sick room alone and should be isolated from others in the house-hold.

mag lady across the way says ample in the matter of saving twe need in this country is litical economy.

hold.

Avoid serious consequences by consuming the family physician when you have a cold. Persons who go about untreated are not only carriers of disease but are liable to develop a more serious condition which will not respond promptly to treatment.

Bringing Up Father-Bw George McManus

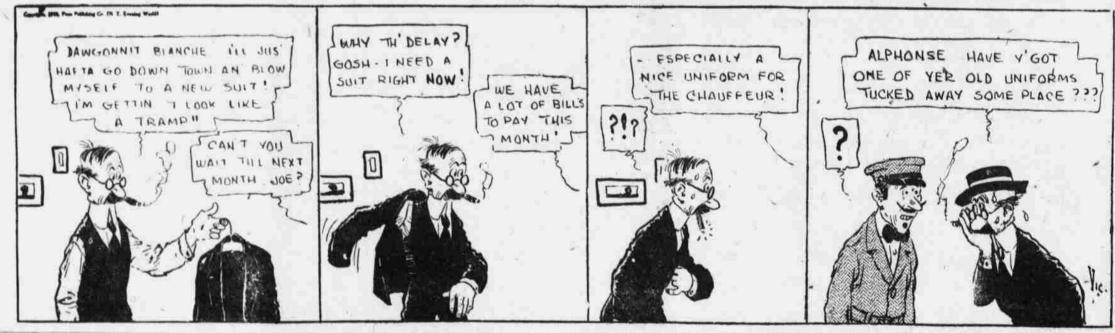

LITTLE MARY MIXUP—An Example of Deadly Feminine Strategy, Say We!

THE BIG LITTLE FAMILY—What's Your Argument, Y' Lil' Runt?

JOE'S CAR-Joe Is Going to Put Up a Battle for That Suit

DOROTHY DIX'S TALK

BY DOROTHY DIX. The World's Highest Paid Woman Writer.

DO MEN IDEALIZE THEIR WIVES? - a learned psychologist says:

"Unless a man believes with all his heart and soul that the woman for whom he cares is the most beautiful, the most wonderful and exquisite creative in the whole world, he does not really leve her, and has not let her inke complete loossession of his mind, his imagination, and his senses."

These fateful and ominous words, the dictum of one who has spent years studying this subject, will send every married woman hot-foot to her looking glass, and what she sees there will leave her wundering whether she should call in the services of an alienist for her husband, or heat him in a race to the diverce court.

Por facts are facts, and there is call in the services of an alternative to the hirdward and the property of the hirdward of the third in a race to the divorce country of the hirdward at tribute to her divide the most two many and the property of the prope

In a recent book in which he dis-cusses the phenomena of love in man, a learned psychologist says:

The woman with a feather bed figure

Thus the theory that a man who truly loves must see a woman as she does not exist, and a tribute to her qualities she does not have, will fill women with horror and dismay. It leaves them no alternative between marrying men who are, so to speak, bug homes or else marrying men who seeing them as more human, family females, can only give them a sade bisewater affection that no wife would really want.

Indoubtedly the idealistic faculty is more nighty developed in men than it is in voron Ail of the great poets and prophets have been men. It is men, who have referred to women as argues and thrown a halo of romance about the founds existing the like the control of the great poets and prophets have been men. It is men, who have referred to women as argues and thrown a halo of romance about the founds existed to look.

men, as a sex, are taught to see straight, and to judge accurately. There are certain standards of beauty and intelligence that a woman must neet to be rated a good looker, or clever, and unless a woman can, in the slang of the day, deliver the goods, no man is going to think her a Venus or a Minerya, no matter how much he might like to.

like to.

To a sane mind it would seem impossible for a man not to be able to distinguish between a sallow complexion and a rose leaf skin; between avoir-dupols and willowness; between sympathy and marowness; between broad culture and stupidity; between subtlety and componplaceness. For a wan not pathy and marrowness; between subtlety culture and stupidity; between subtlety and commonplaceness. For a man not to be able to tell which woman possess each of these characteristics is, indeed, to believe that love is blind. Also daffy.

Yet all these women get married and have apparently devoted husbands. And the women who are beautiful, wonderful and exquisite, land in the divorce court quits as often as their homely, leavy, dull sisters.

It does not follow that because a man thinks a woman pretty that he falls in love with her, for beauty often leaves the heart untouched. Nor does it necessarily follow that a man would prefer a Dreeden china woman to one whom he perceived to be good service-i able delit. The very exquisiteness of a woman may repel instead of attract a man. That isn't the type of wife they admire or desire. All human experience goes to prove that it is not necessary to idealize an individual in order to love him or her. On the contrary, the very blessedness of love is that it can realize all the faults and defects in the one it loves, and still love on.

No. The love that lasts is not built

HOROSCOPE

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1919. (Copyright, 1919, by the McClure News-paper Syndicate.)

Astrologers read this as an unim-ortant day. While Venus rules strong-y for good, Mercury and Jupiter are dyerse. During this rule women have power

EARTAND HOME PROBLEMS

y for good, Mercury and Jupiter are adverse.

During this rule women have power to away men in financial matters, overcoming caution and better judgment, it is declared by the seers.

This should be a fortunate planetary government for the political asphitions of women, and many will gain success in the next two years.

News that may affect business conditions seems to be foreshadowed by the stars today.

Lawyers will come much into the public print at this time, owing to some great legal courroversy dealing with international law, it is prophesied.

Changes in the president's cabinet appear to be forecast, but they are likely to be sudden and unexpected.

Messages that cause anxiety or disappointment are pressaged by this configuration. It is not a lucky day for love letters.

Those who read the stars give warming against the dangers arising from seeking knowledge concerning life after death. Many minude will be seriously affected by attempts to pierce the visibility of the configuration of the future, and a sudden increase of insanity is prognesticated. There is a sign heid to promise surveyed of the configuration of the future, and a sudden increase of insanity is prognesticated. There is a sign heid to promise surveyed of the configuration of the future and a sudden increase of insanity is prognesticated. There is a sign heid to promise surveyed with many atmoyances in business during the coming year. They may be drawn into littigation.

Children born on this day may be rash and impulsive, but these subjects of Libra with Noopple characteristics usually succeed in life and enjoy much domestic felicity.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Can you inform me of a "sure" way to remove warts? I would very much like to know, as I have a large number of them. I have tried a causile, todine, etc., but they all have done little good. G. D. C. Get five or ten cents worth of nitric acid. This will remove the warts after three or four applications. Put the acid cruss off the wart it will burn the fiesh around it badly. The wart itself, however, is hard and when the acid is applied to it there is no pain.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—I am a blonde, Is years old, and my hair is turning gray. Could you please suggest any way that I could restore it to its natural color? Thank you. (Unsigned.)

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a kid of nine years and my mother has just moved to a neighborhood I don't like and I want my old school near the old home. How can I still attend classes in it? Please say you know. ROXIE. Just see Prof. Wharton Jones at the superintendent of school's office in the Goodwyn institute building. Tell him your troubles and he will help you out. Also persunde Daddy or Mother to accompany you there.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a newcomes to Memphis and I wish to rend up on the past hirtory of the city. Where can i find it?

At the Goodwyn Institute library or the Cossitt. There are good histories in both. Judge Young has written a splendid history of Memphis.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: 1 have written a short story on a local thing that seems to me worth a magazine feature. Where shall I try to place it? JUDY.

The American Magazine is considered the best opening to new writers at the present. Simply send the story there inclosing postage for return if found to be unavailable.

Read News Scimitar Wants.